

Terms and Provisions of Registration for Masterclasses

Photography Expertise Expected

- i. To maximize the benefits from a Masterclass it will assist greatly if you are familiar with all functions on your camera and be able to use these functions without frequent reference to the camera manual. Ensure you pack the manual (just in case you need to make some new found adjustments to camera settings!).
- ii. You will also learn more if you have a working knowledge of Photoshop, Lightroom or similar software and be reasonably competent in the use of this on your own computer. Please take along your own laptop.
- iii. The Masterclasses are designed to cater for photographers with a broad range of skills and knowledge, from beginner photographers to professionals. Significant improvements will be seen in your work as you look over the shoulder of a Master of Photography at work, frequently working on one of your own images.

- i. All Masterclasses are arranged on the basis of having a minimum of eight participants. If we are forced to cancel due to inadequate numbers, you will receive a full refund of any fees paid. We will not be responsible for any other expenses you might incur in respect of air or other travel, accommodation, etc., unless the costs of such items are specifically included in the Masterclass fee.

Please consider these activities in relation to your physical abilities and should you have any medical condition that you consider might prevent you from undertaking such activities, please discuss this with us before registering.

Also, you acknowledge that you are waiving (to the fullest extent permitted by law) all claims (whether in contract or tort, under statute, or otherwise) that you might, but for such waiver, have had against Denis Glennon and/or Tony Hewitt, in respect of any loss or injury sustained by you as a result, directly or indirectly, of registering for and/or participating in this Masterclass. We will take all reasonable care to provide you with a safe, educational and enjoyable experience during the Masterclass but we accept no responsibility for injury, death, illness, losses or additional expenses associated with your participation in it.
